FAMILY AND SYSTEMIC CONSTELLATIONS WORKSHOP

Saturday 17th July 2010
9 am – 5 pm

St. Paul's United Church, Upper room
11526 76th Avenue, Edmonton, Alberta

$100.00

Facilitated by: JONATHAN HOOTON

This work is based on the profound observation that our well-being or lack of well-being is connected with our family system which includes the living and the generations before us, our ancestors. This is very much in keeping with aboriginal wisdom where honouring our ancestors is an essential part of receiving strength and moving forward in life. This connection is present whether we are conscious of it or, usually, not. Through healing the ancestral soul, we heal our souls. While we typically view our problems as self-generated, often our difficulties arise out of being entangled with unresolved issues from previous generations.

This way of healing may benefit those struggling with relationship problems, issues with parents, chronic illness, addictions, abusive behaviour, trauma, anxiety, depression, lack of purpose, suicidal thoughts, difficult decisions.
